The Toronto Police Service Presents.....

The Toronto Police Service Coppertones was formed in 1974. The focus of the group was to give back to the community by representing the Police Service through music by performing at various community events and public venues throughout the city. All band members are active, full-time Toronto Police Service members and accomplished musicians. The TPS Coppertones has received the prestigious Chief of Police Award for outstanding community service.

The current line up of the TPS Coppertones is Constable Kevin on guitar and vocals, Constable Mark on keyboards and vocals, Constable Tyler on bass and vocals Special Constable Kevin on drums and vocals.

The band plays a combination of contemporary, R&B and rock music. Over the years, the group has played at a number of venues like the Roy Thompson Hall, Breakfast TV, Mel Lastman Square, Nathan Phillips Square, the Toronto Fire Academy, the Wayne Gretzky Arena in Brantford, Taste of Danforth, Taste of Kingsway, Irun Rock at the Ray Twinney Arena to mention a few.
